

WILD OATS

2009 SAUVIGNON BLANC

Varietals: Sauvignon Blanc
Region: Western Australia: Pemberton,
Margaret River & Frankland River

Like Bob Oatley's yacht, Wild Oats wines are a modern take on a time-honoured tradition – fine wines made from traditional grape varieties in a contemporary style. They're enjoyed at parties, bars, restaurants and some of the most discerning social scenes by those who love vibrant, easy to drink wines that will impress family and friends.

Refined in structure and texture, detailed and generous in personality, and served in the slickest of bright, fashionable packaging – Wild Oats wines set the scene for every enjoyable occasion

Sauvignon Blanc is Australia's favourite white wine style of the moment, however most of what we consume comes from across the ditch.

Wild Oats used premier Western Australian grapes to produce this distinctive varietal sauvignon blanc. It's fresh, crisp and fruit driven and will appeal to the most discerning savvy drinker.

Wild Oats Western Australia Sauvignon Blanc displays succulent juicy fruits in a refreshing, vibrant wine.

Winemaking notes:

Individual parcels were harvested and pressed off skins quickly then fermented cool to retain freshness and aromatic purity. The three region blend is deliberate, with each component adding its own character to the blend: Pemberton for structure and fresh aromatics, Frankland for purity and minerality and Margaret River for riper tropical notes.

Vital Statistics:
